

Table of Contents

1. Overview . . . . .	6
2. Be a participant . . . . .	7
3. To get the most of this book . . . . .	8
4. The “not-teachable” part . . . . .	8
5. Guns, horns, and discipline . . . . .	9
6. My journey to New Orleans . . . . .	13
7. In New Orleans, faking it doesn’t cut it . . . . .	17
8. Studying Satch . . . . .	18
9. Suggested technology and resources . . . . .	21
10. New Orleans and a Rusty Old Horn . . . . .	23
11. How does a trumpet work? . . . . .	24
12. Playing high notes . . . . .	28
13. Trumpet versus cornet . . . . .	29
14. How does traditional jazz work? . . . . .	31
15. Why trumpet players have trouble conforming to the chords . . . . .	32
16. The keys to the kingdom . . . . .	33
17. The “numbering” system(s) . . . . .	35
18. Defining the box and jazz freedom . . . . .	39
19. Major triads--the magic of 3 . . . . .	39
20. Improving the odds . . . . .	41
21. The major triads . . . . .	42
22. Point notes and moving notes . . . . .	43
23. More magic of threes, sensory dissonance, and the hot five notes . . . . .	45

24. Sensory dissonance . . . . .	46
25. Minor and other types of triads . . . . .	50
26. Diminished triads . . . . .	52
27. Augmented triads . . . . .	53
28. Major seven chords and everything else . . . . .	53
29. Finding the patterns . . . . .	54
30. Understanding the hot five and seven notes . . . . .	56
31. Learning tunes . . . . .	59
32. Playing the melody . . . . .	61
33. Tricks . . . . .	61
34. Soloing . . . . .	65
35. Backing up other soloists and backing up vocalists . . . . .	67
36. Transposing . . . . .	67
37. The lava cake test . . . . .	69
38. Basics of traditional jazz . . . . .	70
39. Corsetry and music . . . . .	71
40. Leader duties and communication . . . . .	72
41. Handling sit-ins . . . . .	76
42. The job . . . . .	77
43. Just because you can . . . . .	78
44. Because you can, you should . . . . .	81
45. Bibliography . . . . .	82